

2020-21 Confidential Questionnaire for Separated/Divorced Parents

Please complete this questionnaire and return to the office. Be advised that any changes occurring during the course of the school year (following submission of this form) should be brought to the attention of the school office. It is the custodial parent's responsibility to inform the schools of any change in custody and/or visitation rights.

1. Your Name: _____

Address: _____

Home Phone: _____ Work Phone: _____

Other: _____

Student(s) Name(s): _____

Age(s): _____ Grade(s): _____

2. Name of Other Parent: _____

Address: _____

Home Phone: _____ Work Phone: _____

Other: _____

3. Type of Action Affecting Your Family:

Divorce

Custody Dispute

Other

Separation

Support Dispute

4. Current Status of Action:

Filed

Completed

Appealed

Pending

Disputed

Other

5. County and State in which action took place or is taking place: (if more than one please indicate)

6. Is there a Court Order dealing with custody and visitation?

_____ No _____ Yes

7. Are there any Court Orders curtailing or restricting the rights and privileges of your current or former spouse with respect to his/her right to be kept informed of the student's school progress and activities or to participate in those activities?

_____ No _____ Yes (If yes, please attach a copy of the order.)

8. Does the most recent Court Order expressly permit the student(s) to be released from school to the non-custodial parent? _____ Yes _____ No

If no, please explain:

9. Are you the custodial or non-custodial parent? _____
Is there a joint custody order? _____ Yes _____ No

10. Does the Court Order permit third persons access to your children?

_____ Yes _____ No

Does the Court Order forbid access by anyone to your children?

_____ Yes _____ No

If yes, who is forbidden access? _____

NOTE: Please attach a certified copy of the applicable portion of any such Court Order pertaining to the previous questions. A certified copy must contain a date stamp with language including the state where the judgement was rendered, the county, and generally a notation that, "This document is a full, true, and correct copy of the original on file and on record in my office and has been compared by me." The document should be signed by the Clerk of Courts and, in many cases, contains a formal seal of the Circuit Court of the county in which the judgement was rendered. If your judgement or court order does not contain this information, you should contact the Clerk of Courts to obtain such a copy.

Signature: _____ Date: _____